The Journal extends to each patron and friend the earnest wish that a happy and prosperous year may be in store for them. To those who have given us kindly and loyal support in the past we desire to express our grateful appreciation and to hope and expect a continuation of their kindness during the year 1911.

For our part we shall endeavor to advocate those things which we believe to be for the good of citizens of our county and section. It is our greatest ambition to be of some service to the people among whom our lot is cast. Help us to realize this ambition by giving us your loyal support morally and financially. If we make mistakes, as we have and will, remember that they are honest mistakes, prompted by our earnest desire to serve you and judge us leniently.

General News

Col. Morton Marye for twenty seven years first auditor of Virginia died at his home in Richmond on Dec. 21 of sciatica. He was a confederate veteran, having lost a leg in the service at the 2d battle of Manassas.

S. R. Donohoe editor of the Fairfax Herald and formerly state senator was last week appointed by Gov. Mann to fill the unexpired term of Col. Marye as state auditor.

To the Virginia judiciary an excellent addition has been made in the person of Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of Stafford, who was yesterday designated by Gov. Mann to preside over the Fifteenth circuit as the successor of the late Judge John E. Mason. General approval will be awarded to this appointment.—Free Lance.

Deaths

WILLIAM H. WHITE

William Harrison White, a Confederate Veteran and a prominent citizen of Mobjack, died at Sarah Leigh Hospital, in Norfolk, on Saturday Dec. 31st. He had been critically ill for some time and his death was not unexpected. His cause was said to be cancer of the stomach.

The remains were brought up on the steamer Monday, and the funeral was preached at Grace M. E. Church by Rev. T. W. Ogden and the body laid to rest in the burying ground at his father's (Capt. White) old home.

Mr. White was sixty-nine years of age and is survived by a widow and three sisters, Miss Genie White, Mrs. J. C. Proctor and Mrs. Shelby Green, one brother, Mr. J. D. White and one daughter, Mrs. O. M. Walker. He was a man of sterling character and was respected and loved by the community. His death means the loss of another of those brave spirits who so nobly fought for the right as they it in the struggle between the states. Their number has been already sadly decimated by the hand of death, and the loss of each is keenly felt. To those bowed down by sorrow for the loss of this dear one, the Journal offers its sincere sympathy.

MRS. JAMES BROOKS

At a late hour we are informed of the death of Mrs. James Brooks the wife of an influential citizen of Laban. The deceased lady was highly esteemed in the community because of her many admirable qualities and sterling christian character. She died on Tuesday, the funeral was preached at the home on Wednesday by Rev. L. J. Phaup and interment was in the Pear Tree Cemetery. She was 82 years old and is survived by four sons and three daughters.

MACHEN-DAVIS

Walter E. Machen, son of Mrs. Chas. M. Machen and Miss Effie L. Davis, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Davis all of Mobjack were married at the West Mathews Parsonage on Dec. 25th.

JARVIS-HUDGINS

Henry G. Jarvis of Norfolk and Miss Nora S. Hudgins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Jarvis were married at the East Mathews Methodist Parsonage, by Rev. J. A. Winn on Dec. 25. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Shed Hudgins. They will reside in Norfolk.

ABERNATHY-DIGGS

Arthur T. Abernathy, one time associate editor of the Philadelphia Record, traveller and an author of considerable vote and Miss Pearl Diggs, a popular young lady of Laban, were recently married in Norfolk. Rev. R. Finley Gable performed the ceremony. The happy young couple are now the guests of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Hudgins, of Laban.

MARSHALL-HUDGINS

Mr. William R. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Marshall and Miss Annie Carl Hudgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Hudgins were married at the home of the bride on Dec. 29th, by Rev. L. J. Phaup. All parties concerned are well known at Laban. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left after the ceremony for Norfolk where they will reside.

DIGGS-PEED

Mr. Harvey Diggs, son of Mr. Geo. L. Diggs, and Miss Bessie Peed the attractive daughter of the late Thomas Peed were quietly married at the home of Mr. B. M. Diggs on Dec. 28, at 9 a. m., Rev. L. J. Phaup officiating. They left on the Steamer Mobjack, the same day for their bridal tour. Both the young contracting parties and their families are well and favorably known here.

ATHERTON-GREEN

Mr. Willie J. Atherton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaon Atherton and Miss Lia May Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green, were married at the Methodist Parsonage, at Mathews, by Rev. L. J. Phaup, on Dec. 24th at 7 p. m. All parties concerned were residents of Queenstown.

DIGGS-HUDGINS

Mr. Otis V. Diggs and Miss Effie G. Hudgins, were quietly married at the Mathews M. E. Parsonage, on Dec. 25th, at 7:30 p. m.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Diggs and the bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hudgins both families being well known and highly respected citizens of Laban.

GRIFFIN-MINTER

Miss Sadah Gertrude Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Griffin, 2003 Clayton avenue and Mr. Robert Clayton Minter, were married at the Chestnut avenue Methodist church on Dec. 22d, at 5 o'clock. Rev. Travis J. Taylor, the pastor performed the ceremony.

Miss Griffin entered the church with her father, who gave her away. She wore a going-away suit of blue broad cloth with hat and gloves to correspond and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and roman hyacinth. Miss Lillian Yendes, of Pittsburgh, Pa., attended her as maid of honor. She wore a gown of white satin with crystal trimmings and carried a bouquet of golden gate roses.

The Spring at the Foot of the Hill

I built me a cot at the foot of the hill
Close by a spring bold and clear,
And bade thirsty pilgrims drink to their fill
As I stood by the fount year by year.

Many foot-sore and weary and ready to die
Were refreshed by the cup that I gave,
And I was made strong to answer
their cry
Because of the lives I could save.

Let others sail far across the deep seas
And seek among strangers a name,
And of life's pleasures drink to lees
Or win in war's conflicts their fame;

But give kind service to all the sad throng
And let me their hungry hearts fill,
As I stand in my place all the day long
By the spring at the foot of Life's hill.

The Dying Year

By George Gowen, Mathews, Va.

Now, Lord, as softly breaths the wind
The requiem of the dying year,
Our mingled thoughts we cast behind,
As night's black pall falls o'er the bier:
Accept our praise from hearts sincere,
For mercies through another year.

Upon the New Year's threshold, Lord,
With throbbing, anxious hearts, we stand,
Fearing to tread the "unexplored"
Without Thine own almighty hand
To guide; O Lord, we pray to Thee
To guide and guard us constantly.

If it should be Thy will that we
Should scale affliction's sterile steep,
Bear sorrow and adversity,
With none to cheer the heart that we Still we our prayer would raise to Thee,
"Thou 'Man of Grief' our solace be."

Thou, who alone the wine-press trod,
Who uttered the forsaken cry,
Bore meekly persecution's rod
Without a murmur or a sigh;
Thou "Man of Sorrows" be our stay
While travelling life's perplexing way.

Lord, we are blind!—Be Thou our sight;
Lord, we are weak!—Be Thou our strength;
Oh, shed the ever-radiant light
Upon our path until at length
We grasp the hands—life's wanderings o'er—
Of beloved dead now "gone before."
